Think back to a time in your life that you made a decision that you now regret. Oh, don't be so coy – everybody has one. Okay, maybe not Mother Teresa. Or, Bruce Springsteen. But, unless you're Mother Teresa or Bruce Springsteen – and we're pretty sure you're not – you have been in that position. What if you could go back in time and change that decision? What if you could make the other choice? Or, even better, choose a third option that you didn't even see at the time? Wouldn't you like to know how things would have turned out if only you had done something different at that critical juncture in your life?

DON'T BOTHER.

Have you never read any science fiction time travel stories? Don't you know that they always end with either dinosaurs becoming the dominant species on the planet or your grandfather killing Hitler, causing you to be born with a speech impediment and an irrational fear of listening to Born in the USA? Time branches are not something you can borrow books from – they are paths to realities that you couldn't anticipate and don't want to live in, and just try to get a decent corned beef on rye in any of them!

In Random Dingoos, the third Transdimensional Authority novel by Ira Nayman, investigators Noomi Rapier and Crash Chumley look into reports of a drug that allows people to travel between universes without technological assistance. They methodically work their way up the drug ring's chain of command and are just about to arrest its leader when – time travel happens. With the assistance of Time Agency agent Radames Trafshanian, Noomi and Crash must navigate realities they hadn't anticipated and which they wouldn't want to live in. But, can they find a decent corned beef on rye? You'll have to read Random Dingoos to find out!

Ira Nayman is the creator of Les Pages aux Folles, a Web site of political and social satire that is over 11 years old. Five collections of Alternate Reality News Service (ARNS) stories which originally appeared on the Web site have been self-published in print. Ira has also produced the pilot for a radio series based on stories from the first two ARNS books. Ira's Web Goddess tells him he should make more of the fact that he won the 2010 Jonathan Swift Satire Writing Contest. So, Ira won the 2010 Jonathan Swift Satire Writing Contest. In another life (but still within this incarnation) Ira has a Masters degree in Media Studies from The New School for Social Research which was conducted entirely online. He also has a PhD in Communications from McGill University. Ira taught New Media part-time at Ryerson University for five years. Whoever created the Karmic wheel has a lot to answer for...
