What do you do if you're dead but haven't 'moved on'? You keep finding yourself back where you died, with very little control over when; sometimes you can be away for days, weeks or even months, and then you're back. Between times, when you're 'away', where do you go, what do you do? You've seen some other ghosts asleep at their graves, but you don't even know where your own grave is.

The living shiver if they walk through you, but they can neither see nor hear you. With practice you can pass through walls and doors, but curiously you can sit on a park bench without falling through it, climb stairs, even lie on a bed. You're stuck in the clothes you were wearing when you died, at the age you died. Waiting.

Then, after years of this intermittent existence, you realise what you have been waiting for, what it is that you have to do in order to finally move on. Just as you have found the best reason to stay.

That's what happened to Rowena...

A ghost story told from the perspective of the ghost herself, The Ghost in You is a first-hand account, from beyond the grave, by an innocent girl who dies before her time and tries to make sense of what is happening to her, while helping her friends and discovering her purpose.

Katrina Mountfort was born in Leeds. After a degree in Biochemistry and a PhD in Food Science, she started work as a scientist. Since then, she's had a varied career. Her philosophy of life is that we only regret the things we don't try, and she's been a homeopath, performed forensic science research and currently works as a freelance medical writer. She now lives in York with her husband and two dogs. When she hit forty, she decided it was time to fulfil her childhood dream of writing a novel. Her debut novel, Future Perfect, the first book in the Blueprint trilogy, was published by Elsewhen Press in 2014, followed over the next two years by the rest of the trilogy, Forbidden Alliance and Freedom's Prisoners. Now Katrina returns to Elsewhen Press with The Ghost in You.
